SHS Pre-School Program

Kaley Morana

The Little Colonials Preschool has been in operation since 1989 as part of the public school system in Shrewsbury. Our preschool classroom consists of a multi-aged grouping up to 15 students ranging in age from 3-5 years in age. It consists of one classroom that runs a morning and an afternoon session. Little Colonials is part of the public school system and placement in the program is determined by lottery. Children must be 3 years of age by March 1st to be entered into the lottery. The Little Colonials preschool is run by the Family and Consumer Science Department of Shrewsbury High School. Weekly participation in the preschool by our high school students serves as a practicum experience for those students who are enrolled in the Child Development program.

Little Colonials preschool is staffed primarily by one Early Childhood Teacher and one Teacher Assistant. High School students who are enrolled in the Child Development and Early Childhood Education classes of the Family and Consumer Science Department of Shrewsbury High School function in the classroom as volunteers. On average there are five students in the classroom at one time to assist and learn.

Art & Foreign Language Integration

Madame Leger's French III classes

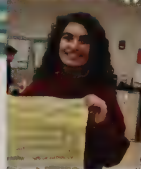

The French III classes are finishing up a unit on the West African country of the Ivory Coast. The students have learned about the culture of the country through an African movie and through Google images which showed the immense differences between our two countries and our cultures. Once they learned about the art of batik, they were very excited to try their hand at the art form. It involves painting cloth with hot wax and then dyeing it so that the original color remains where the wax was placed. African dresses are often made from batiked fabric as it has become a well-know art form in Africa.

The world was old - it creaked and groaned,
Foretold you were before its beginning.
Yet the heavens did open, this brand new wish,
To renew the music, refresh the spirits,
To bring all together, enliven the earths
On either side of the mirror.
With colors, and beats, and lightning,
With prayer, and mood, and strength.
The world whispers all is well
And arises without effort to greet us.
The world is now new, and all yours.
